

Adam & Brooks

Adam & Brooks – Two of A Kind VÖ-Datum: 01. Mai. 2016

Even though Country music has been booming in the USA it is still an inside tip in Germany. But what would a style of music be without its "founder"? Lutz Adam is definitely a part of that, In the country scene he is well known under the name "L.A.", and also Elke Brooks lead-singer of the band Louisiana On Tour.

L.A. began his musical career by selling vinyl records, representing a record company and as a record company reviewer. At the same time he was on stage quite often as a singer/songwriter to present his songs. In 1995 Adam flew to Nashville/TN and recorded his first record "I want You" in the Country Q studios.

His song "Light of Heaven" was awarded "Song of the year 1995" by the German/American Country Music Federation. 1997 he published his first Maxi-CD where he first presented the song in German. He then recorded a German version of the song "When You Say Nothing At All" by Allison Krauss, "Auch ohne ein Wort". He was rewarded with 5th place in the "Hitparade des Fernfahrer".

In 2004 L.A. received 2 awards with his band Road Side from the Independent Country Music Association Germany: "Band of the Year" and for their song "Downtown Nashville" Song Of The Year".

From the beginning L.A. had found an unmistakable style when interpreting his songs. No matter if singing songs of his idols or performing his own songs his voice is always recognizable or how a critic once said: "L.A. can be heard through 17 doors".

His singing skills are not the center of attention but it's his interpretation of his songs that are filled with so much emotion and the ability to wrap everyday stories in a song. He was able to win the popular "Fachmedien award" 2x as Singer&Songwriter 2014 and as moderator of the year in 2013.

Elke Brooks is an experienced lead-singer. Her roots go all the way back to Texas. She is not only known in Germany but worldwide. When she was only 18 years old she was discovered by Wolfgang Mewes who included her in the band "Arabesque" as lead singer. After six months Brooks left the band Arabesque and founded her own Countryband "Four Wheel Drive". She professionally played for several agencies in Europe. She continued her trip through Germany with commercial deals with Marlboro and Jack Daniels. Also several catering firms from the USA that wanted to sell their steaks hired her. Gigs in France, Austria and Switzerland complete her Biography. With her warm and authentic voice she can interpret her songs convincingly to her audience. Once you have heard her, you surely won't forget her voice. While she has a scheduled program with her band Louisiana Elke Brooks is also touring solo with her own songs.

By chance, while attending the showtreff in Ruesselsheim, the two of them played the song "Jackson" by Johnny Cash and June Carter Cash and it worked. The audience loved it and wanted to hear more. So L.A. (Adam) and Elke (Brooks) got together and rehearsed a few songs and performed at the monthly show meeting in 2015. The result: Adam & Brooks, a duo that sounds great together. Authentically they perform cover songs and their own songs where you can really tell how much both of them love music. With their first CD Adam & Brooks – Two Of A Kind they have created a great business card on the market. They are both bookable as solo acts, a duo or with their bands.
