

Delilah Welcomes Natalie Grant to Popular Podcast, "Love Someone: A Podcast with Delilah"

Natalie Grant – 9-time GRAMMY® nominee and 5-time GMA Dove Award winner – graces the latest episode of the immensely popular podcast, "Love Someone: A Podcast with Delilah."

Natalie Grant, an icon in Christian and Gospel music, shares insights into her multifaceted career and passions. From her soaring single "You Will Be Found," which has not only captivated Christian audiences but has also crossed over to mainstream AC's Top 20 charts, to her recent collaboration with the legendary Dolly Parton covering Whitney Houston's "Step By Step," Grant's musical journey is nothing short of awe-inspiring. Natalie shares about her new project, "Seasons," as well.

The conversation doesn't stop there. Natalie Grant is not only a powerhouse in the music industry but also a respected author and philanthropist. As the co-founder of Hope for Justice, a non-profit organization at the forefront of the fight against human trafficking, Grant's advocacy work adds depth to her artistic endeavors.

Delilah delves deep into Grant's experiences, shedding light on her artistic process, her impactful collaborations, and her unwavering commitment to social causes. "We're gonna get into all of it on this episode!" promises Delilah, setting the stage for a captivating and enlightening dialogue that promises to resonate with audiences across the globe.
